Live Action Poetry International 1/2019 aims to promote new ways of expression and presentation of poetry. Poetry is more than words and languages, it is international, universal expression through voice and sound produced to open up more free communication, people's emotion, passion, compassion, etc. Language, on the other hand create sounds, different sound, different ways of express sound, and emotional appreciation. When listen to poetry, we hear sounds, while sound creates poetic appreciation.
