

Maenam Khong Project
13-20 December 2021 (Date and time subject to change)
Chiangkhong District,
Chiangrai, Thailand
Produced by M.O.S, Bangkok

Program situated in Chiang Khong, a district that Mae Khong River named after an begin in Thailand soil. (Lan Chang river in China and Laos).

Duration 5 days + 2 days arrival and departure.

Activities:

1. Action and nature installation on small islands in Mae Khong river.
2. Interactive activities in a village of Buek fish (Giant cat fish) and local market.
3. An evening of activities at Hong Huen Mae Khong on the bank of the river, with music, poetry, performance and movie, with story telling by senior villagers.

Final Presentation:

1. video documentation of the activities
2. Some objects will be sent to exhibit
3. Photographic works and sounds

Artist participants in Thailand:

1. Chakkrit Chimnok; an international known Performance artists, Art professor at Rajabhat University Chiangrai.

2. Pattree Chimnok; an international known performance artists, live and works in Chiangrai province. She is also fabric based artist and painter.

3. Prasart Niranprasert wellknown expressionist artist in Thailand.

4. Narodom Kamenkhetvit; known for his quick sketches and water colour painter. One of the best portrait artists in Thailand.

5. Kitti Treeraj, a conceptual musician, violinist and song writer based in Chiangrai.

6. Anucha Hemmala, Young painter of social expressionist group.

7. Maliwan Saithong, a young Dai Lue ethnic performance artist. Live and works in Chiangmai.

8. Krai Sridee, an object and sound based performance artist, live and works in Chiangmai.

9. Jittima Pholsawek, a co-curator of this project, respected female performance artists in Thailand and SE Asia.

10. Chumpon Apisuk, a co-curator of this project, a pioneer generation of performance art practice in Thailand and SE Asia.